PREFACE

FROM GENERATION to generation, music has held a preeminent and powerful place in the gathering of believers. Since 1977, ILP has been publishing sacred music for worship and prayer. Throughout the years, ten guiding principles have remained at the heart of our planning:

1. The God Who formed us has compromised nothing in His love for us and is worthy of no less than the highest and best that we have to offer.
2. The most important musical instrument within our prayer and divine worship is the singing congregation.
3. Old is not bad simply because it is old; new is not better simply because it is new. Our timeless deposit of faith is made richer and invigorated through the prudent blending of old treasures and new gems.
4. Families grow in love of God and one another through shared prayer. Resources for divine worship must involve and speak to all ages to encourage family experiences of faith, drawing us into a wisdom that indelibly forms and informs every generation.
5. Our music and our prayer must speak the clear and explicit theology of our Catholic faith. Those who try to be everything to everyone speak to no one.
6. Our linguistic conventions must honor God. We cannot weaken the language of God in the name of “inclusivity.” Although ILP is committed to horizontal sensitivity, we will not tamper with Trinitarian theology. We will make all references to God evident by the capitalization of divine pronouns.
7. Music is the language of the heart and the voice of the spirit. We must publish hymns, songs, psalms, and ritual music that resonate within the minds, hearts and memories of those who sing them; for, wherever these melodies live, so their message will grow.
8. Texts and melodies must foster the sacramental journey of each believer, drawing on the wealth of Scripture, the depth of tradition and the unspeakable beauty of ritual.
9. Music must be published in a key that everyone can sing.
10. There need not be a language war between the Vernacular and the Vulgate. While enjoying the accessibility of English, we can continue to be enriched by the use of Latin and other languages.

With these principles informing our every decision, ILP is honored to present the Saint Augustine Hymnal, 2nd Edition. Filling a great need within the Church today, the Saint Augustine Hymnal is a blended compilation of traditional and contemporary titles that provides a wealth of sacred music. The Saint Augustine Hymnal respects the hermeneutic of continuity by including time-honored works along with new, well-crafted compositions from a broad variety of publishers within the last century.

Input from scholars, theologians, liturgists, hymnologists, and presbyters, as well as feedback from parishes that have been using the first edition of this book throughout the past three years, has rendered the Saint Augustine Hymnal a powerful and useful treasure of hymns, songs, psalms and Mass settings.

After compiling a base of timeless public domain hymns and chants that span seventeen centuries, ILP’s editorial team carefully selected “must have” titles from other publishers, both traditional and contemporary, including OCP, WLP, Hope, Oxford, Abingdon, and thirty others. With the Saint Augustine Hymnal, Catholics can at last benefit from a universal experience of substantive sacred music in divine worship from parish to parish. Additionally, no other hymnal offers such a wealth of musical psalm settings (that match the Lectionary texts) from a variety of composers, thus enriching our ongoing experience of the Liturgy of the Word.

We give thanks to many who have made this hymnal possible: the enormously talented authors, composers and arrangers who created the content, the tireless engravers and editors that painstakingly and meticulously scrutinized each detail of every musical work, those who licensed the titles herein, and the designers and technicians that carefully crafted these books.

International Liturgy Publications (ILP) is honored to bring you the Saint Augustine Hymnal, 2nd Edition. May the Word, chant, hymns, songs, psalms, and canticles that reside within these pages resound always on our lips, within our hearts and through our lives.

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (John 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan Bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

FOR THOSE NOT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

The image shows a musical score for a liturgical piece. It consists of five systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The tempo/mood is indicated by the word 'Divisi' at the beginning. The lyrics are: 'high - est! You are ho - ly, You are ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord. You are ho - ly, You are ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord. You are ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord. You are ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord. Ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord. Wor - thy is the Who was slain, but now lives.' There are two first endings (1.) and two second endings (2.). A large, bold, black watermark reading 'SAMPLE' is oriented diagonally across the entire page, from the bottom left to the top right.
